Robert T. Armistead, P.E., Elected President-Elect of the Mechanical Contractors Association of America

ROCKVILLE, MD—The Mechanical Contractors Association of America, Inc. (MCAA) elected Robert T. Armistead, P.E., as its President-Elect during the association's annual convention in Scottsdale, Arizona.

Mr. Armistead is President of Armistead Mechanical, Inc., a fourth-generation mechanical contracting and engineering firm with offices in Waldwick, NJ, and Newburgh, NY.

Appointed to the Board of Directors in 2003, Mr. Armistead is active in the association on both the national and local levels. At the national level, he serves on the Career Development Committee and on the Mechanical Contracting Education and Research Foundation Partnership Enterprise Committee. He also has served on the Audit Committee. He currently serves on the ACE Mentoring National Board of Directors and as a Trustee on the ITF (International Training Fund).

At the local level, he has served two years each as MCA of New Jersey (MCANJ) president, vice president, treasurer, and MCICNJ treasurer. He is an MCANJ board member, a position he has held for more than 15 years. He also served as chairman of the Education and Marketing Committees and as a member of the ACE/MCICNJ Mentoring Committee.

Mr. Armistead is very active in numerous trade organizations and is a trustee for Local 274 and Local 373's Pension, Welfare, and Annuity Funds.

The Mechanical Contractors Association of America, Inc. (MCAA) serves the unique needs of approximately 2,500 firms involved in heating, air conditioning, refrigeration, plumbing, piping, and mechanical service. We do this by providing our members with high-quality educational materials and programs to help them attain the highest level of managerial and technical expertise. MCAA includes the Mechanical Service Contractors of America, the Plumbing Contractors of America, the Manufacturer/Supplier Council, the Mechanical Contracting Education and Research Foundation and the National Certified Pipe Welding Bureau.
