Lonnie Coleman Becomes President of the Mechanical Contractors Association of America

ROCKVILLE, MD—Lonnie Coleman assumed the office of President of the Mechanical Contractors Association of America, Inc. (MCAA) during the association's annual convention in Scottsdale, Arizona. The presidential gavel was passed from 2008 President John B. ("Jack") Wilhelmi to the new MCAA president during the convention's closing session today.

Mr. Coleman is president of Coleman Spohn Corporation, a mechanical contractor located in Cleveland, Ohio.

Appointed to the Board of Directors in 2002, Mr. Coleman is active in the association on both the national and local levels. At the national level, he serves on the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors. He is also a past chairman of the Government Affairs Committee.

At the local level, he is active in the MCA of Cleveland, where he served as president, vice president, and treasurer. He also served on the Board of Directors and the Hiring Hall Committee.

The Mechanical Contractors Association of America, Inc. (MCAA) serves the unique needs of approximately 2,500 firms involved in heating, air conditioning, refrigeration, plumbing, piping, and mechanical service. We do this by providing our members with high-quality educational materials and programs to help them attain the highest level of managerial and technical expertise. MCAA includes the Mechanical Service Contractors of America, the Plumbing Contractors of America, the Manufacturer/Supplier Council, the Mechanical Contracting Education and Research Foundation and the National Certified Pipe Welding Bureau.
