Everyday Hero Award 2018

There are unsung heroes among us who do extraordinary things every day, out of the kindness of their hearts with a passion to make a difference for the better. MSCA wants to honor our very own everyday hero and we need your help. In its fourth year, MSCA's Everyday Hero Award has become a favorite recognition award for employees, peers, employers and the community. Many of your employees and peers are passionately (and sometimes quietly) involved in activities that make a difference in the lives of others --- that deserves to be recognized and celebrated!

We need your help to find a group of extraordinary people!

We need your help to find a group of extraordinary people who "soar" to new heights to make a positive impact in the lives of others, so please take the time to nominate one or more people in your company that you believe are deserving of this honor. Don't underestimate the goodwill you get and give simply by acknowledging others. The deadline for submissions is June 22, 2018

MSCA 2018 Everyday Hero Award

Everyday Hero

A person of integrity with a will of compassion to serve others, who willingly and unselfishly gives of his or her time, skills, and /or services to assist, support, or advocate for others, but seeks no recognition or compensation.

Past MSCA Everyday Hero Recipients

2015 Recipient, George Warren, BPI Mechanical

2016 Recipient, Renna Schafler, Bruner Corp.

Here's what the 2017 nominator had to say about the experience:

"Employee recognition – in large and small ways – is something that we take seriously here at Enginuity. I have to admit, seeing hundreds of people giving Skip a standing ovation at the 2017 MSCA conference was a high point in my life and being able to share that moment with our team sent ripples of positivity throughout our organization. This was something no one at Enginuity will ever forget and it's great that the MSCA has a mechanism for members to elevate the selfless heroes that we work with day in and day out".

Mike McHenry, VP of Service, Enginuity LLC

Here's what the 2017 recipient had to say:

"It was a pleasure to meet everyone at the conference. We're not really heroes. We just fell in love with the kiddos God left us to care for. If anyone is a hero it is Peggy, my wife, who has a heart of gold. Thank you for everything".

Skip Smith, Service Technician, Enginuity LLC

Nomination Guidelines:

Nominees MUST be employees of MSCA member companies and can be in any role, including administrative assistants, service technicians, dispatchers, sales personnel, etc. Please note: Spouses, relatives, and friends who are not employees of an MSCA member company will not be considered.

Examples of contributions include visiting with or taking care of the elderly, helping to build homes, fund-raising for a cause or organization, volunteering time to tutor, planting a community garden, raising a foster child, etc.
