Where do you look when searching for apprentices? What traits do you look for in an apprentice? The mechanical construction industry offers a wide variety of career opportunities to young people. Yet society has told them all that they must go to college to succeed in life. Our industry must personally communicate the benefits of learning the mechanical trades to high school and trade school students in order to survive and meet the needs of our customers in the future.

10:00am – 10:10am Break

10:10am – 11:10am Construction Research Tool and Best Practices for Industry Advancement
Carey Peters, Construction Labor Research Council (CLRC)

11:10am – 12:00pm Legislative, Regulatory & PAC Update
Andrew Siff, Siff & Associates, PLLC

12:00pm Conference Wrap-Up and/or Golf

Thank You!!!

We look forward to seeing you back here at the Resort at Longboat Key Club
