Attachment #1

SHOP STEWARDS

Exclusive to the territory covered by Steamfitters Local Union 420

The union shall assign, when it deems appropriate, not more than one (1) steward to an Employer. The union will select a steward on the basis of such employee's tact and diplomacy. A steward shall be a working employee and, in addition to his/her work as a Journeyman or Serviceman, he/she shall be permitted to perform duties as a steward during working hours. The union agrees to allow stewards a reasonable amount of time for performance of such duties. The Business Manager shall notify the Employer of the selection of each steward and the Employer, before laying off or discharging a steward, shall notify the Business Manager four (4) working days prior thereto of its intention to do so. In no event shall an Employer discriminate against a steward or lay him/her off or discharge him/her on account of any action taken by him/her in the proper performance of his/her duties. A steward shall be offered hours of work and overtime comparable to hours offered to other Employees on similar work. On layoff for lack of work, the steward shall be the last laid off of those engaged in similar work.

The steward may receive grievances and disputes from employees and these matters shall be reported to the union for processing as a formal grievance. In addition, the steward may attempt to amicably adjust minor differences or misunderstandings arising out of the interpretation or application of this Agreement. The Employer will provide assistance to the steward to compile his/her weekly steward reports. Any violation of this Attachment shall be treated as a grievance in accordance with provisions set forth in this Agreement.

Failure on the part of a shop steward, in the opinion of the Employer, to perform a reasonable day's work may, at the option of the Employer, result in his dismissal or removal from the job and a successor appointed. It is understood that such dismissal or removal shall not take place without the approval of the Business Manager of the union or his duly appointed agent.
