- Last Friday, the U.S. Department of Treasury announced its “Get My Payment,” a free web app which will be found at IRS.gov and will allow taxpayers who filed their tax return in 2018 or 2019 but did not provide their banking information on their return to submit direct deposit information. Once completed, they will get their $1200 Economic Impact Payments direct deposit to their bank accounts (plus $500 for minor children), a process expected to begin on April 20. “Get My Payment” will also allow taxpayers to track the status of their payment. The initial Senate GOP proposal centered on providing an additional $250 billion in assistance for the CARES Act small business loan programs, and the initial Senate Democratic offer included $250 billion for small business loans, but included $100 billion additional assistance for health care providers, $150 billion for state and local governments, and a 15% increase in Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP benefits). This interim funding package has been referred to as 3.5 to differentiate it from the larger fourth (4.0) emergency aid package under development with possible action later this month or early May. (New)

Trade and International Business Issues

- Weyand: U.S. and the European Union (“EU”) must lead shift from “wartime” economy to market conditions. On Thursday, April 9, 2020, EU Director-General for Trade Sabine Weyand urged the U.S. and the EU, as well as other like-minded countries, to ensure that the global recovery from the coronavirus pandemic is “as painless as possible” and eventually wean their economies off “wartime” infusions of capital to restore market conditions. In particular, Weyand noted that continued infusions of money will begin to constitute improper subsidization at some point. She pointed to a recently forged plurilateral interim appeals arrangement – in lieu of a functioning Appellate Body – as a model of EU leadership. She added that many other countries were taking steps like the EU’s in removing, even temporarily, tariffs on medical supplies. (New)
- Florida Health Workers Say China Is Hoarding Protective Supplies. A group of Florida medical professionals have accused China of hoarding personal protection equipment in the midst of the coronavirus pandemic and refusing to export the much-needed equipment to the U.S., according to a Florida federal lawsuit. The complaint was filed by Drs. Jordan G. Kuppinger and Damon J. Deteso, intensive care unit nurse Moriah Aharon, registered nurse Christopher Payton and surgical technologist Rosanna Caruso. Two of the plaintiffs have tested positive for COVID-19, while the rest await their test results, according to the complaint. The case is Moriah Aharon et al. v. Chinese Communist Party et al., case number 9:20-cv-80604, in U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida. (New)
- CBP Processing International Donations for COVID-19 Response. CBP provides guidance on the processing of merchandise imported for relief efforts in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. This covers the importation of international donations accepted by the Federal Emergency Management Agency via the International Assistance System Concept of Operations, and those goods being imported by U.S. charities (or other private entities) to assist with disaster relief. (New)
- European Commission provides antitrust guidance. On April 8, the European Commission published a “Temporary Framework Communication” to provide antitrust guidance to companies co-operating in response to urgent situations related to the current coronavirus outbreak. The European Commission also issued a rare “comfort letter” concerning a specific co-operation project aimed at avoiding situations of shortages of critical hospital medicines. This appears to correspond to the expedited DOJ / FTC business review / informal opinion letters.
- Customs to seize exports of masks and gloves amid coronavirus pandemic. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) announced (4/8/20) it will prevent respirators, surgical masks and surgical gloves from leaving the country. The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) will then determine if the equipment should be returned, purchased by the government or exported. See joint statement of CBP and FEMA here.
- Federal Maritime Commission to Begin Review of COVID-19 Supply Chain Issues. The Federal Maritime Commission (FMC) is using newly formed Supply Chain Innovation Teams to look into potential agency actions to reduce supply chain slowdowns related to the COVID-19 pandemic, the FMC said in a news release (4/6/20).

Insurance Issues

- For a 50-state review of business interruption insurance related issues see this new COVID-19 Insurance Litigation and Regulatory Issues Tracker (4/12/20) (New)
- More auto insurers have joined in voluntarily returning some money to customers as the widespread government shutdowns result in a decline in driving as people shelter at home.
- A Pandemic Risk Insurance Act, modeled after the TRIA, has been under consideration by the U.S. House Financial Services Committee since Mid-March. Thus far, a draft bill is unavailable. (Updated 4/12/20)
- Pennsylvania and South Carolina are the latest states to follow the Rhode Island, Louisiana, New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, and Ohio proposals that would re-write business interruption coverage to force insurance companies to cover businesses that have shut down due to the novel coronavirus pandemic and, at least in some cases, override express policy exclusions for infectious diseases or virus contamination. Pennsylvania's bill has bipartisan support from 37 members of the House. (Updated 4/12/20)
- On April 8, the Governor of Colorado issued Executive Order D 2020 032 "Amending and Extending Executive Order D 2020 003 Declaring a Disaster Emergency Due to the Presence of Coronavirus Disease 2019 in Colorado." The Order explicitly states that "COVID-19 . . . physically contributes to property loss, contamination, and damage due to its propensity to attach to surfaces for prolonged periods of time." (emphasis added). Colorado's order follows similar civil authority shutdown orders issued by the Mayors of New York City and New Orleans that explicitly provide that COVID-19 may spread from "surface to person . . . causing property loss and damage in certain circumstances." These provisions appear calculated to provide future litigants with a plausible hook to argue for business interruption coverage where such coverage is contingent on the existence of "physical damage." (New)
- New lawsuits have been filed against insurers regarding business interruption coverage for claims arising out of the COVID-19 pandemic. These suits follow several other similar actions filed in Ohio, New Jersey, Indiana, South Carolina, Louisiana, Oklahoma, California, Texas and Illinois (Updated 4/12/20)
  - On April 8, a group of barbershops led by Outlaws & Gents Grooming, LLC filed suit against their insurer State Farm Lloyds in Texas state court alleging breach of insurance contract, bad faith and violations of the Texas Insurance Code. Plaintiffs argue that the insurer wrongfully denied their claims for business interruption coverage and misrepresented policy provisions.
  - On April 9, several lawsuits, including 837 Foothill Blvd., LLC v. The Travelers Indemnity Company of Connecticut, et al., were filed by the same attorney against Travelers Indemnity Company of Connecticut and Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti in California state court in connection with the Mayor's stay-at-home order and resulting business losses. Plaintiffs have sued the mayor and insurer as co-defendants alleging that the mayor's order prohibits access to the plaintiffs' businesses resulting in covered business interruption losses and that Travelers has collected policy premiums with no intention of providing coverage under the Policies' Civil Authority Coverage sections.
  - Also, on April 9, El Novio Restaurant initiated a class action lawsuit against its insurance underwriters at Lloyd's of London in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida. Plaintiff seeks a declaratory judgment on behalf of itself and all similarly situated policyholders declaring that policyholders were forced by civil authority orders to close their premises and that losses resulting from such closures are covered losses under the policy terms. Plaintiff also seeks a declaration that the policies at issue do not include an exclusion for viral pandemic. Case No. 1:20-cv-21525-UU (S.D. Florida).

- Finally, Millenia Hospitality Group LLC Rose Mar Ltd dba The Lockkeepers brought suit on April 9, against The Cincinnati Insurance Company in Ohio state court. Plaintiff seeks a declaration that it is entitled to coverage for business losses incurred as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic and the executive orders issued by the Governor of Ohio.

Additional Workplace (Stay-at-Home) Issues

- The CDC released new guidance (4/9/20) advising that critical infrastructure workers may be permitted to continue work following potential exposure to COVID-19, provided they remain asymptomatic and additional precautions are implemented to protect them and the community.
- Following the CDC's recommendation of wearing face coverings as "additional, voluntary public health measure," we are seeing a trend of local government orders mandating the use of facemasks or cloth face coverings in public and/or the workplace.
  - Examples include several counties and municipalities in Southern California (including the City of Los Angeles), Hoboken, New Jersey, and Texas counties.
  - Most mandate use by individuals when in public, but at least one local government (Los Angeles) is requiring employers to provide the face coverings for their employees.
  - Most orders are careful not to require the use of surgical or N-95 face masks, which should be reserved for medical responders.
  - We expect to see the trend of mandating the use of face coverings in public to spread to other local, and perhaps state, governments.
- Government Closure/Stay-at-Home orders have been released in multiple state and local jurisdictions. For the key Stay-at-Home order details in one document, view this A&B COVID-19 50-State Closure Tracker \(Updated 4/12/20\)
  - To date, the only states that have not issued state-wide stay-at-home orders are Arkansas, Iowa, Oklahoma, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Utah, and Wyoming.
  - For those asking how to define "federal critical infrastructure sectors" the Department of Homeland Security's Cyber Infrastructures division outlines (last update 3/28/20) 16 sectors and provides additional guidance for businesses.
