The Latest News

- U.S. COVID-19 cases exceed 1,480,609 and 89,754 U.S. deaths. (Source: CDC) (Updated 5/18/20)
- U.S. stock market: On Friday the markets finished up, with the Dow rising 60 points, the S&P 500 up 11 points, and the Nasdaq gaining 70 points for the day. Weekend trading in stock futures were pointing to improvements as of Sunday night. (New)
- Last Friday, the Federal Reserve released its six month financial stability report signaling possible risks ahead, stating that asset prices “remain vulnerable to significant price declines should the pandemic take an unexpected course, the economic fallout prove more adverse, or financial system strains reemerge.” The report added that the commercial real estate market was expected to be among the hardest hit if the financial stress remains. (New)
- The Small Business Administration, with assistance from the Department of Treasury, released the Paycheck Protection Program Loan Forgiveness process on Friday, including the application and instructions. The SBA also updated its Round 2 loan statistics, noting that it had processed

2.75 million in applications from 5,479 lenders and totaling $194.8 billion in loans. The Round 2 PPP data has been updated as well. (New)

- The Kaiser Family Foundation (KFF) has released a survey of state Medicaid officials showing that with the increase in unemployment, Medicaid enrollment is rising, and state Medicaid budget shortfalls are expected. With 38 states reporting, nearly all projected both significant Medicaid enrollment and spending increases in fiscal year 2021 (most state fiscal years start on July 1). In separate analysis, KFF estimates that nearly 17 million people could be newly eligible for Medicaid nationwide and about 6 million for marketplace subsidies. (New)
 - The Urban Institute monthly state revenue data shows state revenues down between 20% to 50% which paints a grim picture for many state budgets. (New)
 - Last week the National Governor's Association released a statement saying that "states are being forced to make cuts that will devastate the essential services the American people rely on and destroy the economic recovery before it even gets off the ground." (New)

COVID-19 Federal & State Legislation

- Bill 4.0: Late Friday, the House of Representatives voted to approve the HEROES Act by a largely party line vote of 208-199. The bill included a managers amendment which scales back the student loan forgiveness language in the original draft to focus on borrowers already distressed rather than blanket loan forgiveness. (New)
 - Senate Majority Mitch McConnell has stated that the Senate does not plan to take up the House HEROES Act, or any other stimulus package, in the short term and will focus this coming week on Trump Administration nominations. The House is in pro forma session until May 27 and will take up non-COVID-19 related legislation next week including the Water Resources Development Act and the defense reauthorization bill. (New)
 - Despite the public statements on the HEROES Act, and the timing of any next steps on bill 4.0 by either body, the House bill's substance has accelerated intense lobbying on what should or should not be included in what, many believe, will be the last stimulus package until fall, perhaps until after the election. The HEROES Act included many provisions which already hold bipartisan support in concept, if not yet in detail. Those issues include additional aid to individuals and families, additional aid to cash strapped states, revisions to Medicare Accelerated and Advance payment program pertaining to interest rate and recoupment time frame, and improvements to the Strategic National Stockpile and other supply chain issues. (New)

(5/13/20)

Department of Justice/Federal Trade Commission/Litigation

Consumer Protection/Anti-fraud/Anti-Trust

- The Department of Justice Antitrust Division issued its third expedited business review letter (BRL) related to COVID-19 collaborations, this time in connection with collaboration by pork producers and processors. COVID-19 outbreaks forced many meat plants to close, leading to a reduction in processing capacity. As a result, some hogs are now unmarketable because they have grown too large to fit on processors' production line equipment. DOJ approved the National Pork Producers Council's proposal to allow its members to coordinate with each other and the USDA and share information to address these supply chain issues. Consistent with its prior expedited BRLs, DOJ said it would not challenge conduct aimed at addressing COVID-19 if it is (i) “compelled by an agreement with a federal agency or a clearly defined federal government policy” and (ii) “supervised by a federal agency.” DOJ found that most of the proposed coordinated conduct would occur at the direction of the USDA, and that information to be shared independent of the government – including euthanization methods, protocols, equipment, or processors – would be unlikely to raise concerns under the antitrust laws. (5/15/20) (New)

Litigation Issues

- The impact of the coronavirus pandemic may be a scheduling challenge for the courts, but bankruptcy cases remain active. For an examination of the implications of a bankruptcy case where the majority shareholder seeks to enforce its blocking rights, read this A&B advisory. (5/8/20)

- Cybersecurity: For an update on recent key developments in privacy, data security, and all things cyber, read this A&B Digital Download. (5/12/20)

- The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) issued an additional temporary amendment to Pesticide Registration Notice 98-10 to include food-contact surface sanitizer products containing the active ingredient isopropyl alcohol. This allows manufacturers of food-contact surface sanitizer products containing isopropyl alcohol to use similar sources of this active ingredient without EPA approval. This amendment should increase availability of food-contact surface sanitizers, benefiting facilities processing low moisture products like grains, cereal, flour, and industrial baked goods, which have been experiencing sanitizer shortages. (5/15/20) (New)
 - The EPA, with the U.S. Department of Agriculture, announced assistance to help 16 communities boost economic opportunities for their local farmers, while promoting clean air, safe water, open space, and healthy food choices. (5/14/20)

Trade and International Business Issues

- Ways and Means Chairman Neal Says Another Round of Tariff Deferral ‘Sensible.’ International Trade Today reporter Mara Lee talked with House Ways and Means Committee Chairman Richard Neal (D-MA) about his concern that some businesses were not able to take advantage of a 90-day deferral to pay duties. Neal said he shared his concerns with U.S. Trade Representative Robert Lighthizer, further noting that “because of the economic circumstances we find ourselves in, I think providing some relief on that front is sensible.” (5/15/20) (New)
- U.S.: Wait until Crisis Subsides to Address WTO’s Role. Amid the ongoing public health emergency, the U.S. will prioritize the “exigencies” of the crisis before it will discuss the World Trade Organization’s role in the recovery or preparations for the next crisis, the country said at the General Council meeting on Friday, arguing WTO initiatives should take a back seat for the time being. “More Americans have been infected with and died from COVID-19 than any other nationality,” U.S. WTO Ambassador Dennis Shea said, according to his remarks. “So please understand these urgent matters of life and death back home have clear priority over any effort we may undertake at the WTO.” (5/15/20) (New)

- Pandemic Presents an Opportunity for U.S., India to Iron Out Trade Deal. The U.S. and India should build on their cooperative efforts to battle the coronavirus pandemic and improve their trade relationship, India analysts said this week, contending that increased engagement could provide the impetus needed to complete an initial trade deal. The countries have been working together under the auspices of the G20 and other international fora as well as bilaterally to address the public health crisis. Additionally, India last month agreed to relax its ban on exports of hydroxychloroquine after President Trump and Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi discussed supply chain issues related to the pandemic. (New)
- MO COVID-19 Suit May Not Bypass China's FSIA Protection. The state of Missouri recently filed a lawsuit against China and Chinese governmental organizations alleging that the “COVID-19 pandemic is the direct result of a sinister campaign of malfeasance and deception carried out by defendants.” Several other states announced plans to file similar lawsuits. Private plaintiffs who suffered injury and losses due to COVID-19 have also filed a number of class actions seeking damages against China. However, the lawsuits face an uphill battle as the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, or FSIA, provides broad immunities to foreign countries and related entities. (New)
- U.S., China Seem Headed Toward Tech Decoupling, S&P Says. Incentives are strong for China and the U.S. to retain the phase one trade deal, an economist at S&P Global wrote May 14, in a report called “U.S. and China Kick Trade Deal Can Down The Road.” While the report’s author said it’s possible the Trump administration would hike tariffs on China to punish that country for COVID-19, “we have long thought that, from an economic perspective, technology not trade is the core issue in the U.S.-China relationship. Technology has been and will continue to be the key driver of growth in China. It is at the heart of intellectual property, market access, and level playing field debates.” Chief Economist Shaun Roche said the two countries are on a path toward technological decoupling, no matter how the purchases shake out that are promised in the phase one deal. Insurance Issues

- For a 50-state review of business interruption insurance related issues see this new COVID-19 Insurance Litigation and Regulatory Issues tracker. The tracker is updated weekly. (Updated weekly - 5/17/20)
- On May 15, the Louisiana Senate proposed an Amended Senate Bill 477. The original bill would have retroactively required insurers to provide business interruption coverage for COVID-19 related business income losses, regardless of policy language. The May 15 amended bill nixes

the controversial retroactive requirements and instead requires that all policies issued after August 1 “include a notice of all exclusions on a form prescribed by the commissioner of insurance” which shall “be conclusively presumed to become a part of the policy of contract when issued and delivered.” (New)

- On May 11, the Pennsylvania Insurance Commissioner warned businesses that failure to comply with Governor Wolf’s closure orders could compromise business interruption coverage claims as “many insurance policies contain provisions that exclude coverage for businesses or individual’s engaging in illegal acts or conduct.” (New)
- The National Association of Insurance Commissioners has issued a Business Interruption COVID-19 Data Call Letter to Property and Casualty Insurers indicating that state insurance regulators in 50 states, the District of Columbia, and the U.S. territories “have agreed to participate in a data call to collect data related to business interruption insurance and COVID-19.” Insurers are “requested to complete both parts of the COVID-19 business interruption data call” and to submit a “Premiums Data Template” by May 22, and a “Claims Data Template” by June 15, with mid-monthly update filings thereafter. The pace of new business income coverage claims flooding state and federal courts nationwide has not slowed over the last few weeks.
- Notable filings and orders include:
 - On May 14, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court summarily denied Plaintiff Tambellini’s application for extraordinary relief seeking to move the case directly to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court pursuant to its rarely-invoked King’s Bench Powers. (New)
 - On May 13, attorneys with Lief Cabraser Heimann & Bernstein, LLP filed suit in the United States District Court for the District of Oregon on behalf of SERO, INC. dba Beast against Sero’s insurer Berkley North Pacific Group (“Berkley”) alleging that Berkley “summarily denied” Beast’s claim for business interruption coverage. The Complaint alleges claims for breach of contract, breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing, unfair trade practices and declaratory relief. Plaintiff seeks to represent both a nationwide class and an Oregon subclass of similarly situated restaurants. This is Lief Cabraser’s third complaint filed on behalf of an insured in connection with COVID-19 business interruption claims. The case is SERO, INC., et al. v. Berkley North Pacific Grp., et al., No. 3:20-cv-00776 (D. Or.). (New)
 - On May 13, Magna Legal Services LLC (“Magna”) filed suit against its insurer Hartford Fire Insurance Co in the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas. Magna alleges that Hartford wrongfully and arbitrarily denied coverage for business income losses resulting from COVID-19 related closure orders. Magna relies on civil authority provisions that purportedly provides coverage when access to its property is forbidden by an order of a civil authority, as well as specific coverage for losses caused by bacteria and viruses. The case is Magna v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co., et al., No. 200500735 (Philadelphia Ct. of C.P.). (New)
 - On May 7, Slate Hill Daycare Center Inc. filed a purported class action in the Southern District of New York against its insurer Utica National Insurance Group. Plaintiff alleges that the insurer issued a uniform letter to insureds informing policyholders that their policies would not provide coverage for business income losses related to COVID-19 related closures and that all such losses are subject to the policies’ virus exclusion. Plaintiff seeks to represent a nationwide class of child care providers and seeks declaratory relief. The case is Slate Hill Daycare Center Inc., et al. v. Utica Nat'l Ins. Grp., No. 7:20-cv-03565 (S.D.N.Y.) (New)
