A Statement from the Mechanical Contractors Association of America (MCAA)

Dear MCAA community,

As our world continues to be disrupted, the events of the past few weeks have exposed some horrifying acts of discrimination and injustice. We all watched in heartbreak and horror as George Floyd died while being arrested by police. We join the rest of the nation in mourning his passing and honoring his memory.

This incident led to national outrage and a demand for change. We have witnessed nationwide peaceful demonstrations united against injustice and condemning police brutality and racial profiling.

Our nation is hurting. In the face of these tragedies, we need to come together as a community and work towards creating a future for all of us that we would be proud of. A future where we can celebrate our diversity and one where discrimination is a distant memory.

It is important for everyone to take a moment to listen – listen to the anger, fear and frustrations. We have an opportunity to learn from each other and grow together. It is time for us to make a change.

MCAA supports equality and safety for all, no matter your ethnicity, gender, religion, sexuality or disability. MCAA is a strong family, making every member feel welcome, at home, safe and secure. We do not have all the answers, but MCAA joins America as we seek change and stand up against injustice.

With respect and gratitude,
